2016 Conversations with Commissioners Schedule

Norristown, PA (April 20, 2016) – For the fourth year in a row, the Montgomery County Commissioners are taking their message on the road. Constituents are encouraged to attend a “Conversations with Commissioners” event to discuss the issues important in their communities. “Conversations” will again be offered throughout the county.

Since they began in 2013, the “Conversations” have been very well-attended and have given county residents the opportunity to discuss a wide range of subjects with the commissioners.

The 2016 series of conversations will be held in Pottstown, Norristown, Pennsburg, Glenside, Lansdale, and Bryn Mawr.

“We have a large and diverse county,” said Josh Shapiro, Chair of the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners. “We are happy to offer residents the opportunity to learn what’s going on in the county as a whole and to discuss the issues particular to their own communities.”

“These sessions are another way we use to keep residents informed about what we are doing in county government,” said Vice Chair, Dr. Valerie Arkoosh. “We live stream our board meetings online and use social media a great deal to inform everyone about what is going on in the county, but the ‘Conversations’ provide a true, personal level of contact with our constituents.”

Commissioner Joe Gale, the newest member of the Board of Commissioners, said he is “looking forward to the ‘Conversations’ as another way to become attuned to the issues that are most important to our county residents. I am anxious to meet as many residents as possible and urge everyone to attend one or more of the sessions.”
