County Flags Flown At Half-Staff Today to Honor Passing Of Former Commissioner

Norristown, PA (July 26, 2016) – County flags will be flown at half-staff today to honor the passing of former Montgomery County Commissioner Floriana (Flo) Manno Bloss, who passed away Friday at the age of 81. Bloss was first elected county treasurer in 1980 and served in that capacity until 1988; she was county commissioner from 1988-1991; and served on the Board of Assessment Appeals from 1992-1998.

“On behalf of the Board of Commissioners, we mourn the passing of Commissioner Bloss and extend our appreciation for her service to the County and our thoughts and prayers to her family,” said Montgomery County Commissioners Chair Josh Shapiro. “With the lowering of the flags to half-staff, the Commissioners would like to commemorate the life of former Commissioner Bloss and begin a tradition to honor all former commissioners who pass through this show of respect.”
