Green Lane Park Hosts “Shorebird or Songbird Walk”
Saturday, August 13, 2016 beginning at 6:00pm

Green Lane, PA (August 8, 2016) – Montgomery County’s Green Lane Park will hold a birding program entitled “Shorebirds or Songbirds” on Saturday, August 13, 2016 beginning at 6:00pm. This one is up to Mother Nature; if there are extensive mudflats, the search will be for herons, sandpipers, and plovers; if water levels are high, the search will turn to songbirds. Either way, participants will discover why Green Lane Park is a mecca for birds and birders alike!

Participants are encouraged to bring their own binoculars (or a scope if they have one) and meet at the Church Road Bird Sanctuary in Green Lane Park located at 1010 Church Road, East Greenville, PA 18041.

This free program is suitable for ages nine to adult. Preregistration is required. Please call 215-234-4528 to reserve a spot.
