Holiday Tours at Pottsgrove Manor

Friday, November 25, 2016 through Sunday, January 8, 2017

Pottstown, PA (November 21, 2016) – Visit historic Pottsgrove Manor between Friday, November 25, 2016 and Sunday, January 8, 2017 for a glimpse of colonial life during the holiday season.

With the museum's annual "Twelfth Night Tours," visitors of all ages can enjoy a guided tour of ironmaster John Potts' elegant 1752 Georgian manor house, decorated with greenery for Yuletide. Along the way, guests will learn about traditional English celebrations of Twelfth Night and how they differed from modern Christmas celebrations.

The tours are offered during regular museum hours: Tuesday to Saturday from 10:00am to 4:00pm and Sunday from 1:00pm to 4:00pm. The museum is closed Mondays, as well as Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day. Tours are given on the hour; the last tour of the day begins at 3:00pm.

Admission is free. A donation of $2.00 per person is suggested for the tour. Groups of 10 or more should preregister by calling 610-326-4014. In case of inclement weather, please call ahead to make sure that the site is open.

Visitors will also want to stop by Pottsgrove Manor's museum shop for unique, historically-oriented gifts like locally-made redware pottery and ornaments, reproduction glassware, handcrafted candles and soaps, books, toys, games, and more. The museum shop is open during regular museum hours.

Pottsgrove Manor is located at 100 West King Street near the intersection of King Street and Route 100, just off Route 422, in Pottstown, Pennsylvania. Pottsgrove Manor is operated by Montgomery County under the direction of the Parks, Trails, and Historic Sites Division of the Assets and Infrastructure Department. For more information, please call 610-326-4014, or visit the website at www.montcopa.org/pottsgrovesmanor. Like Pottsgrove Manor on Facebook at www.facebook.com/pottsgrovesmanor.
