Summer 2013 Internship Opportunity at the Peter Wentz Farmstead

Worcester, PA (April 16, 2013) – The Peter Wentz Farmstead, a restored 18th century Pennsylvania-German home and farm, is looking for a summer intern interested in a career in history or museums. The internship offers experience with a broad range of museum responsibilities including:

- Public and educational programs
- Collections and curatorial work
- Day-to-day administrative tasks (this is not code for photocopying)!

The intern will also provide assistance with any or all of the following projects:

- Research for upcoming and long-term programming on topics including:
  - The Pennsylvania-German immigrant experience
  - 18th-century Pennsylvania women's lives
  - Pennsylvania-German architecture
  - 1790s clothing and accessories
- Collections database data entry
- Post-event visitor surveys

This is a paid internship, which offers very flexible scheduling:

- 8-10 hours per week (more is possible if the intern is interested), Tuesdays through Saturdays
- Internship can start as early as May 28, 2013

Please submit letters of interest by May 10, 2013.
