Montgomery County Commissioners Take “Conversations” to Upper Perk and Norristown Next Week

Norristown, PA (February 21, 2014) – The Montgomery County Commissioners will hold two more of their town hall meetings known as “Conversations with your Commissioners” next week. On Monday evening, February 24, the commissioners will be at the Grand Theater in East Greenville, and on Thursday evening, February 27, they will be at Norristown Municipal Hall.

Both town hall meetings begin at 7 p.m.

The commissioners scheduled a series of six “Conversations with your Commissioners” throughout the county. Three of the sessions (Lower Pottsgrove, Bryn Mawr, and Abington) have been postponed due to inclement weather. They will all be rescheduled at a later date. The commissioners did conduct a town hall in Ambler last week.

“These conversations with the commissioners are another in a series of ways we are trying to keep residents informed about what we are doing,” said Josh Shapiro, chair of the commissioners. “We also live stream our meetings online and use social media a great deal to inform everyone about what is going on in the county.”

“We urge residents to attend these conversations so they can hear what we have tried to do during our first year in office, and we can hear what issues are most important to our residents,” Shapiro said.
