Pennsylvania Traveling Classroom “The Pennsylvania WoodMobile” Visits Green Lane Park Saturday, September 27, 2014

Green Lane, PA (September 23, 2014) - Follow William Penn as he shows the history of Pennsylvania’s woods and the importance of forest management and sustainability. “The Pennsylvania WoodMobile” features a traveling classroom that allows the public to experience firsthand the impact its woods have on the nation’s lumber industry along with the effects that the deer population have on today’s forests. The Pennsylvania WoodMobile is a project of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture's Hardwoods Development Council and with the support of the state's hardwoods industry. The trailer and truck are provided by Deer Park Lumber, Inc. of Tunkhannock, Pennsylvania.

Don’t miss out on this unique exhibit and wonderful family experience at the Bird & Wildlife Festival! This event will take place on Saturday, September 27, 2014 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Make sure to come early to miss the long lines that follow this popular display!

For more information, please call the Green Lane Park office at 215-234-4528.
