“The Tempest” Under the Stars at Montco’s Green Lane Park
Saturday, July 11, 2015 at 7:00pm

Green Lane, PA (June 29, 2015) – New York’s Central Park won’t have anything on Montgomery County’s Green Lane Park on July 11. Shakespeare comes to Green Lane that night when the Commonwealth Classic Theatre Company (CCTC) brings its outdoor production of “The Tempest” to the Green Lane Park Amphitheater at 7:00pm.

This classic Shakespearian play charts a journey about young love, old enemies, and the eternal magic of storytelling. Exiled to a fantastical island, Prospero unleashes a churning storm to shipwreck the traitor brother who stole his throne and settle the score once and for all. But bitter revenge is upended by newfound love in this sublime masterpiece that proves we are all “such stuff as dreams are made of.”

CCTC, a non-profit organization, is dedicated to the principle that theater is a vital component of a civil society. It is their mission to present theatrical works to enhance the audience’s appreciation of theater as a humanizing art form. Directed by Allen Radway and featuring respected, veteran actor, David Howey, formerly of the Royal Shakespeare Company, this production will make the journey from revenge to forgiveness impossible to forget.

The Green Lane Park Amphitheater is located at 2298 Green Lane Road near the intersection of Green Lane Road and Hill Road, just off Route 29, in Green Lane, Pennsylvania.

Green Lane Park is operated by Montgomery County under the direction of the Parks, Trails, and Historic Sites Division. For more information, please call 215-234-4528, or visit the website:
