DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE DONATES SEIZED FLEA/TICK COLLARS AND MEDICINES TO S.P.C.A.

NORRISTOWN, Pa. – Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele and Courthouse Comfort Dog Turks announce a donation of 190 boxes of flea and tick medicines and collars worth more than $3,500 to the Montgomery County S.P.C.A. at 19 E. Ridge Pike in Conshohocken.

The donated items were delivered to the S.P.C.A. office/shelter today by DA Steele, Turks and Turks' partner Montgomery County Detectives Investigator Kiersten McDonald. The majority of the medicines and collars—brands such as Frontline, K9 Advantix II, PetAmor, Harts and VetGuard Plus—are for use on dogs of all sizes, although one-third of the items are for Turks' cat friends. The collars and medicines were seized, along with other items, from Pottstown Cash Traders and One Stop Pawn Shop, both in Montgomery County, and two other pawn shops.

“The owner plead guilty in January to criminal conspiracy and receiving stolen property,” said Steele. “Now that they are no longer needed as evidence in a criminal case and have been forfeited, we are happy to be able to donate them to help the S.P.C.A. in their work of rescuing dogs and cats and finding them good homes.”
