STATEMENT REGARDING SUPERIOR COURT ORDERS IN COSBY CASE

Today we received two orders from the Pennsylvania Superior Court. The first, at the Commonwealth's request, quashed the Cosby defense team's pretrial interlocutory appeal. The second, also at the Commonwealth's request, denied their appeal of Judge O'Neill's refusal to certify an interlocutory appeal. We did not believe that the defense had a right to appeal at this stage, and we are gratified that the Court came to the same conclusion. The effect of both of these orders is that we can now hold a preliminary hearing. We are ready for that hearing and look forward to the Court setting a date so we can present our case.
