Montco Office of Aging & Adult Services Announces Name Change

Norristown, PA (July 15, 2019) - The Montgomery County Department of Health and Human Services announced today that the Office of Aging and Adult Services, in its 41st year of operation, will begin operating under the name Office of Senior Services, effective immediately. The new name has been chosen to better reflect the current strategic focus on serving seniors and to bring awareness to the specific needs experienced with the aging process.

“Our goal is to assist all of our county seniors to be safe and healthy and to age successfully in their communities,” said Montgomery County Office of Senior Services Administrator Doreen Hespell. “We are excited about our new office name because it speaks to our desire to focus our efforts towards the educational needs and provision of core services to our senior population.”
