FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DA, DETECTIVES ARE READY TO INVESTIGATE ANY ISSUES ON ELECTION DAY

Report issues on tip line of 610-292-2020

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (Nov. 3, 2020) — Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele reminds residents of Election Tip Line, and notes that a team of prosecutors and detectives are in place to investigate any issues. The Election Tip Line is 610-292-2020.

“I want to reassure Montgomery County residents that we will use all means to make certain we have a safe, secure and valid election here in Montgomery County on Nov. 3,” said DA Steele. “While we don’t expect any issues, we are ready to assist in protecting the integrity of our electoral system—as we do for every election.”

First Assistant District Attorney Edward F. McCann, Jr., will head the team of Assistant District Attorneys and Montgomery County Detectives who will work with federal, state, county and local law enforcement, as well as other government officials, to protect access to and the integrity of voting on Nov. 3rd. Reported violations of election laws will be investigated, and if appropriate, prosecuted. In addition, the District Attorney’s Office will work with the United States Attorney’s Office to deter electoral corruption and will refer any federal violations to the U.S. Attorney. Any potential problem should be reported to First Assistant McCann at the tip line 610-292-2020 or by email at emccann2@montcopa.org. The District Attorney’s Office can also be reached through the County Radio Room at 610-275-1222.
