Montgomery County Commissioners Slate “Conversations With Your Commissioners” Around County

Norristown, PA (January 14, 2013) – Over the next few weeks, the Montgomery County Commissioners will be having conversations about county government with residents throughout the county.

The commissioners have scheduled a series of five “Conversations With Your Commissioners” beginning this Saturday, January 19 in Lansdale. The series concludes in Pottstown on Monday, February 11. Other stops include Lower Merion, Pennsburg, and Glenside.

“These conversations with the commissioners are another in a series of ways we are trying to keep residents informed about what we are doing,” said Josh Shapiro, chair of the commissioners. “We live stream our meetings online and use social media a great deal to inform everyone about what is going on in the county.”

“We urge residents to attend these conversations so they can hear what we have tried to do during our first year in office, and we can hear what issues are most important to our residents,” Shapiro said.
