Through Wednesday, January 31st
during regular museum hours

“Stitch to Learn, Learn to Stitch”

Pennypacker Mills • 610-287-9349

Needlework throughout history has been an art form associated with women. Young girls made a sampler containing the alphabet, thus they learned embroidery techniques and the alphabet at the same time. As teenagers, they would make a decorative pictorial sampler. Once they were married their time was occupied with other household duties and embroidery was usually done as an embellishment on a piece. This exhibit will show a variety of samplers, pieces of redwork, along with embroidered table scarves and other items.

All ages; free, suggested donation $2 per person.

Saturday, February 24th to Saturday, November 11th
during regular museum hours

“Good Night at the Manor”

Pottsgrove Manor • 610-326-4014

Life does not only happen from sun up to sun down. Uncover the nighttime happenings and routines of 18th century Pottsgrove Manor! Work, relaxation, and more made night time a lively time of day. Discover what the Potts family and their household staff would do as the light of day turns into dark.

All ages; free, suggested donation $2 per person.

Thursday, March 1st to Wednesday, October 31st
during regular museum hours

“The Art of Josephine W. Pennypacker”

Pennypacker Mills • 610-287-9349

The late 19th century saw popularity in works of art among women, especially watercolors. On display will be watercolors, charcoal drawings, oil paintings, and pencil drawings of Josephine Pennypacker.

All ages; free, suggested donation $2 per person.

Shadows of the Past

Norristown Farm Park • 610-270-0215

The history of the Farm Park is closely intertwined with the history of Norristown State Hospital, but a chronological record of events in this area would take us much further back in time. The land was originally part of a 7,000 acre tract of land called "Williamstadt" that belonged to William Penn. We'll trace the history of the land from the late 1600s to the present day. Find out about the original land owners, their successors, and the history of the existing buildings which were used by the state hospital either as housing or part of their farming operation. Indoor program; pre-registration is required; meet in the salt wing of the historic dairy barn.

Ages: adults & children 12 & up; free.

Tuesday, February 6th at 8:00 am

Morning Bird Walk with Kevin

Norristown Farm Park • 610-270-0215

Beginning in February of 2018, there will be a monthly bird walk at Norristown Farm Park. All of the walks are on Tuesday mornings, except for those in May. Check the Calendar of Events for exact dates. Kevin Hakun has worked for Montgomery County Parks for many years and is an avid birder. He has led bird walks at Peace Valley Park and many other places. Come out and meet him, and join our monthly walks. See and hear more bird species than you will on your own. Bring binoculars if you have them. Pre-registration is required; meet in parking lot #3.

Ages: adults & children 10 & up; free.

Winter Chores & Treats

Peter Wentz Farmstead • 610-584-5104

In many cultures the days just before the start of Lent meant a time for celebration and feasting and the Pennsylvania Germans were no different. They often celebrated Fastnacht Day by using some of the indulgent ingredients in the kitchen, such as butter, sugar, eggs, and potatoes to produce yummy Fastnachts, or fried potato doughnuts. Visit to watch hearth cook Deborah Peterson make these and other pre-Lenten treats in the Summer Kitchen; we'll even have some to share. But work on the farm never stops, so we'll also have demonstrations of typical winter activities—preserving meat for long-term storage using the smokehouse, splitting wood for fires, and farm tours.

All ages; free, suggested donation $2 per person.

Wednesday, February 14th at 1:00 pm

"Good Night at the Manor" Exhibit Opening

Pottsgrove Manor • 610-326-4014

Pottsgrove Manor is diving into the "after hours" activities that our colonial ancestors did from continuing to do work, relaxing from the day, preparing for bed, and more. To open this new exhibit, Pottsgrove Manor's curator will present a lecture "Working Days and Busy Nights" at 4:00 pm. Following the brief lecture, nighttime tours of the new exhibit will be offered where visitors can see the busy evening routines of the entire household. Find servants cleaning up after a hard day's work, the Potts family socializing and relaxing, and a few people preparing to go to sleep. The work is never done at Pottsgrove Manor, even into the candlelit night!

All ages; suggested donation $2 per person.

TALK:

"The Ghosts of Immigrants Past at Pier 53"

Pennypacker Mills • 610-287-9349

Hear Susan McAninley of the Friends of Washington Avenue Green as she brings to life the story of immigration in Philadelphia. The Pier 53 Project encompasses the 50 years from 1876 to 1926—from the purchase of the Navy Yard by the Pennsylvania Railroad to the dwindling of immigration due to the gradually restrictive laws by the Federal Government. Over one million European immigrants arrived in Philadelphia at Pier 53. At the height of the immigration movement, the port was the third largest in the nation. Discover the wide variety of immigrants who arrived and settled in Philadelphia and beyond. Meet at the Classroom building.

All ages; free, suggested donation $2 per person.
