Municipal Police and Other Law Enforcement Officers

NOTE: Training is available only to sworn law enforcement officers and approved employees of law enforcement agencies.

The Application for Enrollment in State Police Training Course, Form SP 8-130, is the only form which shall be used by municipal police officers registering for any course listed in the Training Calendar. A copy of the form is provided in the back of this calendar and may be reproduced as needed. Copies of the form are also available at the Academy and the Regional Training Centers. Student confirmations are made via written correspondence. Without prior confirmation, students will not be admitted to the class.

Applications shall be submitted directly to the Academy unless otherwise noted in the course description. When submitting an application via fax, it is not necessary to submit the original application.

Applications must be received no less than 30 days in advance of the scheduled course. A check, payable to the "Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," shall be forwarded upon receipt of confirmation notice where special fees, lodging, or meals are applicable. Reimbursements will be made in accordance with established procedures; however, no refunds will be made for meals which are paid for in advance when the student chooses not to eat at the Academy. A separate check is not required for each student; however, when paying with a single check, applications must be for the same training course and the applicant(s) name(s) and course title must be reflected on the check. The Bureau of Training and Education will determine class composition, and all students will be notified as soon as possible. Non-Department applicants will be instructed in the confirmation notice to contact the Bishop Connare Center regarding meal and lodging issues when training is being conducted at the Southwest Training Center.

If reasonable accommodations are required for a person with a disability, please contact the training facility to be attended at least 14 days before the course begins.

In the event that a scheduled student is unable to attend a course, your department may substitute another student not less than five days prior to the start of the course. When time permits, this will require the submission of a new application; otherwise, telephone notification will be accepted, and the student will be required to hand carry the approved application to the training facility. Telephone notifications of cancellations, made to the Academy, will be accepted and must be received at least five days prior to the start of a course.
