Montgomery County Bomb Squad to be featured Wednesday on CBS 3 News

Norristown, Pa., (May 15, 2013) – The Boston Marathon bombings put all local bomb squads on notice and the Montgomery County Bomb Squad is paying attention. The bomb squad led by Unit Commander Sgt. Al Stewart, will be featured in a televised segment on CBS 3 News Wednesday May 15, 2013 at 11 p.m. Award-winning CBS 3 Eyewitness News Reporter Walt Hunter spent more than three hours covering the unit's equipment inspection and testing, emergency preparedness practices, and inter-agency training.

The Montgomery County Bomb Squad, is a division of the sheriff's department and offers services to any Montgomery County fire or police department on request. It supports other local, state and federal officials, and provides security clearance services for visiting dignitaries.
