MCSD to receive flag retirement box from Patriotic Order Sons of America to honor Flag Day

WHAT: In honor of Flag Day, the Montgomery County Sheriff's Department will receive a hand-crafted flag retirement box, donated from the Patriotic Order Sons of America (P.O.S. of A.); the organization responsible for passing legislation in 1949 making June 14th, Flag Day, a national holiday. The box will give county residents a way to properly dispose of worn and frayed American Flags and will be located outside of the sheriff's department offices. A brief presentation will be given about the history of the P.O.S. of A.'s involvement with Flag Day and the flag disposal process.

WHO: Chief Dep. Alfred Ricci, Montgomery County Sheriff's Department
Lt. Gregory Womelsdorf, Montgomery County Sheriff's Department
Cpl. Terrence Cullin, Montgomery County Sheriff's Department
