One of Montco's "Most Wanted" deadbeats arrested following special ops investigation

Norristown, Pa., (July 2, 2014) – A Montgomery County Domestic Relations Office “Most Wanted for Child Support” defendant was arrested on June 26, 2014 at a Wawa in Bridgeport, Pa., as a result of collaborative special investigative techniques used by the sheriff’s office.

Defendant Ian Byrd had evaded attempts for over a year to collect approximately $44,988 in back child support owed for his four children. He is being held at the Montgomery County Prison on $5,111 bail while awaiting a court date.

“I want to thank Deputies Charles Hallman, Kelli Holbert, Zachariah Miller, Allen Pendleton, and James Subbio for their persistence and hard work,” said Sheriff Russell Bono. “I don’t want to discuss the techniques that were used. But, I will say that we will continue to use creative methods to get these deadbeat parents and help their kids get the support they are mandated by law to receive.”
