Montco deadbeat parent roundup yields six in overnight sweep

Norristown, Pa., (July 16, 2014) – Nine children may start to see some of the $59,777.07 in child support they are owed, following another overnight raid on Wednesday, July 16, 2014 by the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office. Six deadbeat parents were arrested during the sweep and are awaiting a hearing by Hon. Rhonda Daniele.

Twelve MCSO deputies were deployed to several areas in the county at 1:00 a.m. with a list of 31 active warrant defendants, who collectively owed $395,117.75 to 60 children.

"As always, I urge parents who have outstanding warrants for child support payments to come into our office to resolve their cases," said Sheriff Russell Bono. "We will continue our steady focus on making sure that county kids get their child support."

The MCSO is adding social media tools to its arsenal to help find deadbeat parents. Wanted defendants will now also be highlighted on the MCSO Facebook and Twitter account pages.

The Sheriff's Office relies on the public's assistance in finding wanted individuals.
